RELEASE AUTHORIZATION

In furtherance of my application for membership in the American College of Osteopathic Surgeons (ACOS), I request and authorize any hospital and/or medical staff where I now have, have had, or have applied for medical staff privileges, and any organization of which I am a member or to which I have applied for membership, and any person who may have information, records, or documents which are deemed necessary by the ACOS to evaluate my eligibility for membership to provide such information to representatives of the ACOS. I agree that communications of any nature made to the ACOS regarding my qualifications for membership may be made in confidence and shall not be made available to me under any circumstances.

I release any hospital, medical staff, organization, or person, and the ACOS and its representatives from any liability for acts performed or communications, reports, recommendations, or disclosures made, requested, or received in good faith and without malice in connection with provision, collection, or evaluation of information or opinions bearing on my professional qualifications, credentials, clinical competence, character, mental or emotional stability, ethics, behavior, or any other matter, whether or not requested, in connection with my membership in the ACOS.

I pledge to hold the ACOS and its representatives harmless and agree to pay any attorney's fees and defense costs incurred by the ACOS for defending a lawsuit for damages or declaratory or other equitable relief in connection with the FACOS application.

I certify that the statements made by me in this application are true to the best of my knowledge and belief; and that I shall give every possible aid to the ACOS in its investigation of my qualifications as a surgeon.

I declare that I have read the Code of Ethics of the American Osteopathic Association.

I pledge that, if I become a member of the ACOS, I shall continue to abide by and uphold the Bylaws of the ACOS and the Code of Ethics of the American Osteopathic Association as interpreted by the ACOS.

I further pledge that, if honored by membership into the ACOS, any violation of ethical conduct on my part relating to hospital procedures or surgical practice shall be deemed cause for suspension or revocation of my membership in the ACOS.
